UNION DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. ADOPTED IN STATE CONVENTION JANUARY, 8, 1862.

WHEREAS, The Democratic party having, from the date of its organization, been in favor of the maintenance of the Union and the preservation o tion of the country the deplorable effects of a departure from its time-honored and conservative principles, and the triumph of sectionalism; and 50 firmly believing that the Union and the Constitution can be preserved alone by the restoration of dition to pay, etc., of Lieutenant 10 26 00 that party to power, we invite all true Union men In the above we have not inserted the frac- throughout the land to unite with us in sustaining tional parts of dollars, for convenience sake, in its organization and carrying out its principles: Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we reaffirm and endorse the political principles that from time to time have been put forth by the National Conventions of

8. That we are utterly opposed to the twin beresies, Northern sectionalism and Southern secession, as inimical to the Constitution; and that freemen, as they value the boon of civil liberty and the peace of the country, should frown indignantly upon them.

9. That in this national emergency the Democracy of Indiana, banishing all feeling of passion and resentment, will recollect only their duty to the whole country; that this war should not be waged in the spirit of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or institutions of the States. but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

And the attempts which have been made since our present unfortunate troubles, to muzzle the press and stifle free discussion, are exercises of despotic power against which freedom revolts and which can not be tolerated without converting freemen into slaves. 14. That the seizure of Slideli and Mason, on board a neutral vessel, on the high seas, was either in accordance with international law, and so legal; or else in violation of such law, and so illegal. If the former, we lament that our nation has been humiliated by their surrender, under a threat; if the latter, it was the duty of the Administration at once to have disavowed the act of their officer, and instead of incarcerating the captives in Fort Warren, to have immediately repaired the wrong by placing them, as far as practicable, in the same condition in which that officer had found them. In either event, the action of the Administration was vacillating and cowardly, and degrading to the dignity of a great na-

15. That the action of the Republican party, as manifested in the partisan character of all appointments of the Administration to civil office; and, in holding party caucuses by the Republican members of Congress for the purpose of impressing upon the legislative action of that body the peculiar dogmas of that party, have demonstrated that their professions of "sacrificing party platforms, and party organizations, upon the altar of their country, are but so many hypocritical and false pretences by which they hope to dupe the unwary into their support; and we warn all loyal persons, as they love their country, not to be deceived thereby.

16. That the disclosures made by the investigating committee in Congress of the enormous frauds that have stalked into the army and navy departments, implicating the heads of those departments in a connivance at, if not an actual participation in a system of corruption, and in which our brave soldiers have been defrauded of their proper supplies, and our Government threatened with bankruptcy, demands a thorough investigation into all our expenditures, both State and National, and that a speedy and marked example be made of all such "birds of prey," who, taking advantage of the necessities of our coun

That the meritorious conduct of the Indiana troops, in every battle field where victory has perched upon the national banner, has filled the people of this State with the highest gratitude to her gallant sons, and that we send our best wishes to officers and men, dispersed throughout the country, and the heartfelt greetings of every Democrat for their further brilliant achievements in the coming contests for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union.

Worthy of Merit. Among the many remedies offered to the public under he head of Patent Medicines, it is a relief to know that some of them are valuable preparations—will do what is claimed for them—and are worthy of use and a place in every family. Belonging to this class may be mentioned Dr Boback's Scandinavian Remedies—Blood Purifier and Blood Pills—which are most excellent preparations, and have the desired effect in all cases for which their use is intended. Like thousands of others, we bear personal witness to this, having used them in our family with the best effects. We are also acquainted with many whospeak voluntarily in praise of these medicines.
